The topic of the Bible study at the Y.
M. C. A. Tuesday evening was "Contrasts between the unsaved and the saved."

GEN. HARLAND WAS FIRST G. A. R. MAN IN Among other points the following were brought out in the discussion, several scripture pussages being used in the study. The unsaved man is the servant Connecticut, G. A. R., was organized for you. It is shady the last of properties of the start of sin; he is entangled in the meshes of sin; he is entangled in the meshes of sin; he is a produgal away from home, is the devil. Though he may at times deny it, the fact remains. The worked man desires to flee from God, having a troubled conscience and he will inally be dimowned by Christ, and will receive the sad sentence, "depart from me." The saved man in contrast, is a betrant of God; he is the only reality free man, instead of being a produgal away from home, he is a child in the Father's house. He is led always by the Spirit, he is bold and unafraid because he has a clear conscience; he enjoys sweet companionship with his Lord and finally receives the sweet commendation. Come ye blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdonn prepared for you." It is the kingdonn prepared for you. OLD PRIENDS. There are no friends like old friends, and none so good and true; We great them when we meet them, As oses great the dew; Though born of kindred wold;
And while we prize the new ones,
We treasure more the old.

There are no friend town.

Where'er we dwell or town.

In lands beyond the ocean.

Or near the bounds of home:
And when they smile to gladden,
Or sometimes frown to guide.

We fondly wish those old friends Were always by our side.

There are no friends like old friends, To help us with the load.
Which all must bear who journey
O'er life's uneven road: And when unconquered sorrows The weary hours invest. The kindly words of old friends Are always found the best,
